

PRESS RELEASE

POSTPONEMENT OF THE 7TH EDITION OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMPOSITION FOR WIND ORCHESTRA

Following the global health crisis we are going through, the 7th edition of our International Composition Competition for Wind Orchestra, whose quarter-finals were to take place in November 2020 in Paris, then in May 2021, for the semi-finals and final, in the Pas-de-Calais (Hauts-de-France), is being postponed. It will conclude directly and exceptionally with the final in November and December 2021 at the Conservatoire à Rayonnement Régional (CRR) in Paris, as part of the Rencontres d'Orchestres d'Harmonie du CRR.

The details of this programme will be provided shortly on :

www.coupsdevents.com

For the record,

Our 7th edition saw the registration of 173 composers from 26 countries.

In a few figures, the Coups de Vents International Composition Competition :

6 editions

19,000 direct spectators

1,151 composers

78 nationalities

121 selected works

22 partner orchestras

1,600 musicians

60 free concerts

€ 78,500 in prizes awarded

With the support of